At-Risk Education Awards

Three educators were honored by their peers at the Wisconsin Chapter of the National At-Risk Education Network Conference.

- Doug Kugler, a Waukesha County Juvenile Detention Center instructor, who has reached a challenging student population through experiences in technology.
- Cindy Gibson, recently retired from the Medford Alternative High School, helped to champion a former at-risk student into becoming an educator.
- Vicki Bayer, principal of Minoka-Hill School (Green Bay Area Public Schools), received the Anthony Dallmann Jones Advocacy Award for her leadership in creating and coordinating programs that provide students with the support to overcome personal challenges, while maintaining the academic rigor necessary for success.

Congratulations to all the honorees.

Resources from NDTAC -

The National Evaluation and Technical Assistance Center for the Education of Children and Youth who are Neglected, Delinquent or At-Risk.

- Wisconsin Fast Facts: Demographics, Program Types and Funding A snap shot of youth who are enrolled in Title I, Part D, Subpart 1 and 2 programs. Great data for presentations and reports.
- Human Trafficking in America's Schools Understand how human trafficking impacts schools, recognize the indicators of child trafficking, and develop policies, protocols, and partnerships to address and prevent the exploitation of children.
- Tip Sheet: Creating and Maintaining Good Relationships Between Juvenile Justice and Education Agencies Use these tips to create strong working relationships that facilitate the development of high-quality education programs within juvenile justice settings.

Other Resources

- Wisconsin Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports – PBIS
Positive Behavioral Intervention and Supports (PBIS) is a systemic approach to proactive school-wide behavior to increase academic performance, improve safety, decrease problem behavior, and establish a positive school culture. If interested contact your regional coordinator with questions.
